

Software Distribution for Work at Home

McAfee Virus Software and Microsoft Software

These software packages are available for home use from various other distribution points (see below). The campus site license contracts specify who can qualify for Work at Home Use as:

- SDSU Faculty and Staff (Main campus and IVC)
- Auxiliary Staff (SDSU Research Foundation and associated Projects, Associated Students, and Bookstore)

Not qualified are Adjunct Faculty, Emeritus Faculty or Retired Staff.

McAfee Virus Software

Distribution Point - TNS Help Desk (LL-200)

Requirements - Red ID, Blank CD (Bookstore sells singles for 99 cents) and knowledge of your operating systems version.

Product - CD-ROM (no manuals or box)

Installs - No limit.

Fee - NONE

Microsoft Software

Distribution Point - SDSU Bookstore 2nd Floor Technology area

Requirements - Red ID, a completed Users Acceptance Form (available at the Bookstore). Software must be for Work at Home Use and not for personal purposes.

Product - CD-ROM (no manuals or box), has a unique ID code that can be tracked.

Installs - Limited to 2 user installs, after which there will be time outs.

Fee - $9.99 per software package. The following packages are available:

Windows XP Pro w/SP2 (upgrade only)	Office Pro 2001 for the Mac OS 9
Office XP Pro for Windows	Office Pro 2004 Mac w/Virtual PC for OS X
Office Pro 2003 for Windows
FrontPage 2003 for Windows
Publisher 2003 for Windows
Visual Studio.Net Pro 2003 for Windows

Microsoft License Agreement

See the following links for further information about Microsoft licensing for the CSU:

- <http://redding.calstate.edu/es/csp/doclink.cfm?linkid=559&num=0>

Questions on the Microsoft License Agreements, can be directed to our campus contact is Celia Chavez at 43712.